Starlight Theatre Collaborates with EB and Co. to Release Starlight-Inspired Jewelry

The historic theatre celebrates 75 years under the stars in 2025.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Starlight Theatre, Kansas City's oldest and largest performing arts organization, proudly marks its 75th anniversary in 2025. Established in 1950 as part of Kansas City's centennial celebration, Starlight has since become a cornerstone of the community, capturing millions with unforgettable performances from its historic stage in Swope Park. Partnering with Kansas City community businesses and organizations, Starlight continues the celebration by collaborating with EB and Co. - a local fashion maker featuring Kansas City-inspired jewelry, as well as handmade leather bags, cards, and hair accessories.

"As a Kansas City-based brand, we're honored to create jewelry that celebrates the magic of live theatre and the timeless stories told on the Starlight stage," Emily Bordner, Owner of EB and Co., said. "This collaboration lets us share our love for the arts with our community in a stylish and meaningful way."

The Starlight-themed collaboration jewelry include earrings and rings, both styles simple and modern with a subtle nod to Kansas City's historic theatre. One style features the iconic towers that rise into the Swope Park sky, the other features the four-point star that appears throughout the architecture of the theatre.
